

THE 2019 GRENACHES DU MONDE COMPETITION

Use of the Grenaches du Monde medal

The “Grenaches du Monde” medal is a trademark registered with France's National Institute of Intellectual Property (INPI).

For further information, the competition's regulations can be read on our website: www.grenachesdumonde.com

Permission must be obtained before use of the medal trademark

- No reproduction of the Grenaches du Monde competition medal is permitted without the prior consent of the Conseil Interprofessionnel des Vins du Roussillon (Roussillon Wine Trade Council) (make request to contact@grenachesdumonde.com).
- The medal must be accompanied by mention of the wine that won the award as well as the brand name and/or the name of the producer.
- Compliance with the competition's visual identity is mandatory.

Use is restricted in terms of time and quantity

- When permission is granted, use of the reproduction of the medal is permitted on the wines until the batch that won the award has been exhausted.
- Use on other sales material (brochures, banners, shop signs, websites, etc.) is limited to the five years following the award of the medal, which means up to 18 April 2024 for prize winners at the 2019 competition.

Two types of use of the medal on bottles are possible.

Below we give details of how to purchase or declare each of the different types of use.

- Purchasing stickers to be affixed to bottles.

Orders are placed directly to the Conseil Interprofessionnel des Vins du Roussillon through the online medal ordering store. This is only accessible to winners of awards at the 2019 competition through their customer account on the website www.grenachesdumonde.com/mon-compte

The award winner undertakes to affix the stickers only to bottles whose contents match the awarded wine and whose volume does not exceed the one declared on the registration file. The CIVR cannot be held liable for any claim arising from failure to respect this commitment.

- Inclusion of the medal in sales labels or material such as neck labels

Inclusion of the medal in sales labels or material such as neck labels is permitted on the condition that you have declared the printing of such labels by making a prior request to the CIVR through the online medal package ordering store. This is accessible only to

2019 competition winners through the customer account at the website www.grenachesdumonde.com/mon-compte

The award winner undertakes to affix the competition medal only to bottles whose contents match the awarded wine and whose volume does not exceed the one declared on the registration file. The CIVR cannot be held liable for any claim arising from a breach of this commitment.

The CIVR monitors compliance with the visual identity and the quota of medals available.

It charges a fee for use of the medal brand on wine.
